Campo De Golf Villa Martin

Villamartin already exists for more than 35 years. It is known as one of the finest and best courses in the region. From the first tee, it has class written all over it. Villamartin is located in a valley, on the edge of a riverbed. The terrain is not that hilly, with dense forests, and the course is perfectly integrated into this natural environment. And just so you know Villamartins 17th hole is regarded as one of the most difficult in all of Spain.

Real Club De Golf Campoamor

Longer than other courses in the area, but the fairways are wider so theres more room to have a go!! Built in 2 valleys, lush fairways and fast greens, with palm, pine and orange trees. Impressive clubhouse, restaurant and bars, A beautiful course, give it a try, you will love it.

Las Ramblas Golf Course

Las Ramblas the incredible water hazards the ramblas which makes this golf course different to others in the area. Take plenty of balls, Youll need them, Its an outstanding undulating golf course in a dramatic contrasting landscape. One minute youre trying to steer clear of trees and the shrubbery and the next youre battling to avoid barren rock outcrops.

Alenda Golf Course

Gently rolling, varied course with well distributed holes, Alenda Golf Club was designed by Roland Favrat and opened in 1999. The fairways are gently rolling and the greens have tricky slopes requiring a good line and putting stroke. The first 9 holes are wide and lined by trees. The last 9 holes require great concentration -- precision counts for more than distance. An entertaining course for players of every level. Covered driving range, putting green, chipping green, practice bunker.

La Marquesa Golf Course

La Marquesa Golf and Country Club is located in the town of Rojales, some 40 kilometres from Alicante, close to the A37 and the N-332. It is situated in a flat valley between the Quesada mountains, and the layout of the round alternates between long holes and short ones. The varied and pleasant round is lined with pines and palm trees. A wonderful location offering a very pleasant temperature both in summer and in winter. La Marquesa is not excessively difficult, so players of all levels will enjoy it. The greatest difficulty lies in the characteristic layout of the greens, with their attractive and complicated slopes. The round is bordered by streams and lakes, which gives the course excellent views and provides beautiful natural surroundings to play in. The better players might find La Marquesa a bit too easy, but the majority will find it very pleasant and will enjoy the excellent walk in a magnificent part of the country.
